

SAVE THE DATE!

The Courage to Change: Building Bridges Between the Church & Recovery Communities

A training to equip Clergy & Laity to engage in recovery ministries

October 14, 2011 9:30AM - 4:30PM

October 15 9:30AM – 3:00PM

At South Pasadena UMC

October 16, 2011 12:30-4:30PM

At First UMC of Bishop

Topics Will Include:

- Building Effective Partnerships with Recovery Groups in your Community
- Spiritual Caregiving for People with Addictions & their Families
- Violence Related to Substance Abuse
- Developing a Recovery Worship Celebration
- *Focus Conversations with Cal-Pac Churches engaged in Recovery Ministries
- *Site Visit to successful recovery ministry project in Bishop, CA
- *Screening of critically-acclaimed documentary, Lost in Woonsocket

In an effort to help local churches forge closer partnerships with recovery groups like Alcoholics Anonymous and other support groups, the California-Pacific Conference's Office of New Ministries will sponsor an engaging three-day workshop to train clergy and laity to support individuals and their families battling alcohol and other drug addictions in their congregations and communities.

Registration Costs:

South Pasadena - $45

Bishop - $15

For more information on registration, please visit www.cal-pac.org or contact Nataly Ruiz, nruiz@cal-pac.org

For More Information:

Julie Elkins @ First Church, Costa Mesa – revjelkins@aol.com
Caddy Jackson (Retired) @ First UMC, Bishop – revcaddy@usamedia.tv
Kelvin Sauls, Director for New Ministries – ksauls@cal-pac.org
Gary Williams @ Holman UMC – revgary@holmanumc.com
Debbie Sue Webb @ South Pasadena UMC – havegodwilltravel@hotmail.com

Sponsored by
The Office of New Ministries in collaboration with
The United Methodist Special Program on Substance Abuse & Related Violence
www.umspсарv.org